Projects

Loca Moda: A buying and selling platform for creatives and fashion lovers

Performed initial research, developed the concept of a buying and selling fashion community, took user surveys and analyzed data, designed wireframes for the entire site, further developed key pages, and fully rendered landing and item listing pages

Street Sweet: An app enabling food truck lovers to find and order from their favorite sweet-themed food trucks

Designed the app, produced user stories and flows, selected paired typefaces with a color palette, designed the logo, icons, wireframes and layouts, and produced a clickable prototype
